

Steinar Kolnes (Solar Harvest)

Fra: Fassine Fofana <fassine.fofana@gmail.com>
Sendt: 6. april 2016 16:15
Til: Steinar Kolnes (Solar Harvest)
Kopi: arne@solarharvest.eu; ovmko@online.no
Emne: Re: SV: Biofuel As vs Statoil corruption case

Thank you Mr Kolnes

A big victory indeed . From my perspective it looks even worse than I thought .

I am afraid none of the names mentioned in this report rings the bell with me . I think this is the mystery of this story . I think someone somewhere has overestimated my " influence " and that of my friends in Ghana and that has led to this fairy tale of story. The fact is I do not have that kind of relationships in Ghana , a country I last transited through on May 25 2008 , having arrived on the KLM flight and on my way to Abidjan the following morning . I just checked my passport to make sure . My last visit before that was on 2003 . And anyone who knows me can tell you that i do not go around "carrying gifts " . How demeaning ?

The question now is : who dropped my name in this saga since none of the Ghanaian parties mentioned knew me or are acquainted to me ? Is have very big friends in Ghana . This is not what they do . They are in mining, oil and gas and real estate . How cheap ! The other question is who dropped Mwana Africa's name , a company focused on DRC , South Africa and Zimbabwe in this dirty story ? The third question is who knew of my connection to both EER and to Mwana Africa and the fact that I brought the two companies together in an alliance to go after oil assets in Angola and Sudan and the fact that alliance immediately enabled EER , who had been struggling for finances , to raise $35 millions from the same investors who had invested in Mwana Africa after its successful market flotation in London ? Is that why my name came out as someone who could get things done and that I could help BA in Ghana ? I would go to the bush in Ghana to pay off unsuspecting tribal chiefs and take a 10 percent cut in the process ? What an insult? . Your guess is as good as mine as to who would have that inside information about me .

I thank you for inviting me to attend your law suit as a witness . Regrettably I cannot attend . I do not see what purpose it will serve for me personally . Of greater interest to me would be a suit against Diligence who manufactured these reports in the first place , in a London court.

The documentation you have sent is very useful and very helpful . Thank you very much .

I will now consult with my legal advisers and decide on the next course of action

Regards

Sent from my iPhone

> On 5 Apr 2016, at 19:21, Steinar Kolnes (Solar Harvest) <steinar@solarharvest.eu> wrote:

>
> Fassine Fofana,
>
> After working hard towards corrupted court (where Statoil employed the > judge) and other obstacles for more than 7 years, we finally won an > important victory over Statoil ASA and got the court just recently > ordered Statoil to hand over the two reports to us, ref. the > attachments The company responsible for the reports is Diligence International LLC www.
> <http://diligence.com/> and its subsidiary Diligence London, contact > person Trafor Williams email: twilliams@diligence.com
>